

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

Subject: Official Statement regarding Counterfeit Certification of Our Products
To Whom It May Concern,

We, Beijing Lepu Medical Technology Co., LTD., as a responsible and reputable entity, hereby issue this official statement to address a matter of utmost importance that has come to our attention. We have recently become aware of the circulation of forged certification falsely claiming that our product In-Vetro Diagnostic Medical Device for Detection of SARS-CoV-2 Antibody (colloidal gold immunochromatography) have been certified with TÜV SÜD qualifications. We would like to emphasize that we have never applied for nor received any such certification.

It has come to our notice that certain individuals or entities in the market are engaged in the deceptive act of misrepresenting our product by using counterfeit certificate with No. V1180203496 to create an impression of legitimacy. We want to clarify that these claims are entirely false, baseless, and misleading.

Beijing Lepu Medical Technology Co., LTD. firmly declares that we have always adhered to stringent ethical practices and followed all relevant regulations and guidelines. We have never sought to gain an unfair advantage by misrepresenting the qualifications or certifications of our products. Our commitment to providing high-quality products and maintaining the trust of our valued customers remains unwavering.

We urge all our esteemed customers and business partners to remain vigilant and cautious when dealing with claims related to the certification of our products. Should you come across any suspicious or unauthorized documentation in connection to Beijing Lepu Medical Technology Co., LTD. or our products, we kindly request you to inform us immediately through the official channels mentioned on our website.

It is essential to note that we reserve the right to take legal actions against any individual or entity found to be involved in the creation, distribution, or propagation of false information related to Beijing Lepu Medical Technology Co., LTD. and our products. We are determined to protect our brand reputation and the interests of our stakeholders from any malicious activities that aim to deceive the market.

In conclusion, we appreciate your continued support and understanding. Beijing Lepu Medical Technology Co., LTD. is committed to transparency, integrity, and delivering only authentic and certified products to our valued customers.

If you have any further queries or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact our dedicated customer service team.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Beijing Lepu Medical Technology Co., LTD.

Sincerely,
